

Write a Letter assignment worth 60 points(pts)

Your Task

You will create a letter proposing a study club for students in your area. Your letter will explain what the club is, when and where it will meet, and the goals of the club.

Follow each part below in order.

---

Part 1: Set Up Your Document

1. Open and Save Your Document

1. Open a new blank document in Microsoft Word.
2. Save your document before you begin typing.
3. Save your file as:

Unit_03_Assignment_1_YourName

Replace YourName with your full name.

Example: Unit_03_Assignment_1_BenSmith

Save First! Saving your document before you begin helps protect your work and makes sure you know where your file is.

2. Add the File Name and Date

At the top of your document:

1. Insert a Quick Parts field for the File Name.
2. Insert a Date field for today's date.

3. Set Up Your Body Paragraph Formatting

Set up the following formatting before you write your letter:

- Left Indent: 0.5"
- First Line Indent: 0.25"
- Paragraph Spacing Before: 18 pt

- Paragraph Spacing After: 18 pt
  - Make sure the spacing is not added between paragraphs of the same style.
  - Line Spacing: Exactly 15 pt
-

Part 2: Write Your Letter

4. Write the Salutation

Type:

Dear [Teacher's Name]

- Replace [Teacher's Name] with your teacher's name.
- Underline only your teacher's name.

5. Describe Your Study Club

Write at least two paragraphs about your study club.

Be sure to explain:

- What your study club is
- Who the club is for
- When the club will meet
- Where the club will meet
- What students will do in the club
- What the goals of the club are

6. Format Your Club's Name

Give your study club a name.

Every time the name of your club appears in your letter, apply the Subtle Emphasis style to it.

---

Part 3: Finish Your Letter

7. Add Your Closing and Name

After the body of your letter:

1. Start a new paragraph.

2. Type Sincerely,
3. Start another new paragraph.
4. Type your name.

8. Format Your Name

Select your name at the bottom of the letter. Then:

- Change the font.
- Increase the font size.
- Center your name.
- Apply a Glow font effect to your name.

9. Check and Save Your Work

Before you submit:

- Check your spelling and grammar.
- Make sure you completed all required formatting.
- Save your document again.

---

Final Checklist

Before submitting your assignment, make sure you can check every item:

- I saved my document with the correct file name.
- I inserted the File Name using Quick Parts.
- I inserted today's date using a Date field.
- I set the Left Indent to 0.5".
- I set the First Line Indent to 0.25".
- I set paragraph spacing to 18 pt Before and 18 pt After.
- I set line spacing to Exactly 15 pt.
- I typed Dear followed by my teacher's name.
- I underlined my teacher's name.
- I wrote at least two paragraphs describing my study club.
- I included when and where the club will meet.
- I explained the goals of the club.
- I applied the Subtle Emphasis style every time I used my club's name.
- I included Sincerely, and my name.
- I changed the font and font size of my name.
- I centered my name.
- I added a Glow effect to my name.
- I checked my spelling and grammar.

- I saved my work again before submitting.

Submit Your Assignment

Submit your completed Microsoft Word document to your instructor for grading.

Rubric

| Criteria                                                                                                    | Points Possible | Points Earned |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------|---------------|
| File is correctly named.                                                                                    | 5               |               |
| Top of the document contains a date field and a File Name Quick Parts field.                                | 5               |               |
| The salutation (Dear Teacher's Name) is properly formatted.                                                 | 5               |               |
| The indentation of your body paragraphs is Left .5" with a first line indent at .25".                       | 5               |               |
| Includes two paragraphs describing the club.                                                                | 5               |               |
| The paragraph spacing is set to 18pts above and below and is not applied to paragraphs with the same style. | 5               |               |
| The line spacing is set to exactly 15pts.                                                                   | 5               |               |
| The Subtle Emphasis style is applied to the name of your club.                                              | 5               |               |
| The signature text is included.                                                                             | 5               |               |
| Your name has a different font and font size and is aligned to the center of the document.                  | 5               |               |
| Your name has a Glow font effect applied.                                                                   | 5               |               |
| The document is free of spelling and grammar errors.                                                        | 5               |               |
| Total Points (pts)                                                                                   | 60       |               |